

NEW PHARMACY PRESCRIBES BAUDER

CHIDDENBROOKE PHARMACY, CREDITON

Chiddenbrooke Pharmacy, Crediton was the brain child of a four-doctor practice who had outgrown their original premises. The brief for the new venue was to have easy access, natural light, tranquillity and car parking facilities.

The pharmacy was to protrude out of a hillside with a green roof to create a seamless blend between structure and hill. In fact, the only immediate sign of the building's existence are the brick drum entrance and rooflight which spans the length of the pharmacy. During construction, the rolls of turf that were to be used on the roof were lain in nearby meadows allowing them to be pollinated by local plant species. They were then installed on top of the building and the seamless blend achieved. Fifteen years later, the people of Crediton are still extremely proud of this forward thinking NHS facility. The surgery won a RIBA regional design award in 1993 and a Civic Trust (Commendation) in 1994.
