

Safety Data Sheet
for Bauder DSE20/40/60

18th October 2016

Product Name

Bauder DSE20/40/60 Drainage and Protection Layer

Information on Supplier

Bauder Limited
70 Landseer Road
Ipswich
Suffolk
IP3 0DH
Tel: (01473) 257671
Email : technical@bauder.co.uk

Composition

High density Polyethylene

First Aid

General information

The following information refers to applying the product:

After breathing in:	not applicable
Contact with skin:	Potentially sharp edges to boards. Wear protective gloves.
After contact with eyes:	not applicable in normal use.
Information for doctor:	not applicable

Fire fighting

Suitable extinguishing agents:

foam, carbon dioxide, extinguishing powder, and water.

Unsuitable extinguishing agents from a safety point of view:

None known.

Special risks through the substance, its combustion products or gases produced:

When forced to burn, this product will decompose and emit toxic fumes containing CO, CO² water vapour and trace volatile organic compounds..

Special protective equipment for fighting fires:

Fire fighters and others who may be exposed to products following combustion should wear full protective clothing and self contained breathing apparatus

Handling and storage

Handling: Manual handling mechanical or team systems should be implemented wherever possible.

Storage: Sheets should be laid flat and can be stacked on pallets.
Do not handle or store near an open flame or sources of heat.

Personal protective equipment

Hand protection: Suitable protective gloves

Eye protection: Wear safety glasses when cutting

Ecology

According to experience to date, the product is environmentally neutral. Its material properties mean that it is not bio-degradable. No negative ecological effects are known or expected.

Disposal

Spent material should be recycled or disposed according to current regulations

Transport

Not classified/not a hazardous substance within the meaning of national and international transport regulations.